Kase-Ha Shotokan Karate Academy Newsletter

April 2025

Welcome ... to the April 2025 issue of KSKA News!

This first newsletter of the year 2025 brings you reports of some of the recent KSKA activities, an updated calendar for upcoming activities as well as important information about the next Natsu-Gasshuku in Helsinki (Finland) and of the Aki-Gasshuku 2025 in Luxembourg, administrative information and course flyers. All this to stimulate you to continue training hard in the tradition of and with respect to Sensei Kase.

Message from Shihan Dirk Heene 9th Dan, President of the KSKA

Dear Members,

I am always somehow a bit surprised when our Secretary Tom asks me for a text for the newsletter. Time goes so fast and so many things have happened.

During the most recent course in Portugal (Aveiro) over 120 persons were participating with over 60 black belts. Good work from the Portuguese Kase Ha Shidoinkai, but also from the local senseis: sensei Miguel Rocha (new hip), sensei Henrique, sensei Armando and sensei Filipe. In this group 4 persons did a successful examination for nidan.

Also, in Scotland in the weekend from 13 – 14 April, we had an instructor's course on Friday with the Kase ha teachers from the Aberdeen area. Amanda Walker obtained the Sandan. Jim Martin joined the course and we discussed several aspects of Bassai Sho kata and kumite combinations. Sharing knowledge between senior instructors and asking questions about kata and the typical Kase Ha methods is a strong power in the courses and the Gasshuku's.

Unfortunately, one of our famous senior senseis Franz Josef Manderscheid passed away on the 2nd of April. He was a good friend and a great adviser in the karate group of Müllheim, Freiburg and on the courses in the Black Forest in Germany.

It is a great value that we still have the Gasshuku's to meet each other and train together.

Message from Shihan Dirk Heene 9th Dan, President of the KSKA

See you in Helsinki.

Dirk Heene

Reports of recent KSKA activities

15th KSKA Kangeiko, February 21st - 23rd, Müllheim (Germany)

February 21st - 23rd 2025, the 15th KSKA Kangeiko took place in Müllheim under the direction of and on invitation by the KSKA Shihankai. Everyone stayed in hotel "Altes Spital" to train hard, eat good and socialise. There was a very good atmosphere under all participants.

The topic this year was Shugyo, austere training (meaning a deep, concentrated study period) at the coldest time of the year. Friday evening was an old-skool traditional training with (only) 1 topic: the typical Kase Ha 9 open hand combination led by Sensei Pascal Petrella. Very intensive, very powerful, very silent (no talking, training and deep focus).

Saturday morning Sensei Nico Ibscher did a heavy training focussed on kicking techniques with resistance (pads). Again very intensive, very powerful and no time for talking.

Saturday afternoon Sensei Juan Pablo Delgado focussed on open hand combinations in kumite, building up from basic to more complex combinations with lots of partner changes. Very intensive, very powerful and for sure, again no time for talking.

There was more than enough time to talk between the trainings, during the meals, but for sure NOT during training (I believe all who participated liked that principle very much).

The last training on Sunday morning was again led by Sensei Pascal Petrella, it was again a traditional old-skool kata training, basically warming up with the kata (Gojushisho-Sho) and continuing to perform the kata full speed and power for 1 hour with 1-2 minutes rest in between, in silence of course. Again a great experience for all, clearly feeling the energy in the room.

Reports of recent KSKA activities

The idea clearly was old-skool Japanese training methods, meaning not much talking (or not at all), not much explanation, just doing, repeating to reach a level of Mushin no Shin. All who participated must have felt the unbelievable and great fighting spirit, the Budo Spirit that emerged in the sports hall while doing this kind of training. Sensei Kase would have loved it, for sure.

Report by your Secretary, based upon input from Sensei Pascal Petrella.
Pictures kindly provided by Sladan Mitrovic.
